Early Learning Community Mourns the Passing of Health Director Loretta Fuddy

HONOLULU – The Early Learning Advisory Board and Executive Office on Early Learning shared the following statement regarding the passing of Hawaii Department of Health Director Loretta Fuddy:

“Members of the early learning community in Hawaii are mourning the tragic loss of Loretta Fuddy, director of the Department of Health.

“As co-chair of the Early Learning Advisory Board, Loretta kept us focused on our keiki and their health needs as the foundation for successful learning. She worked tirelessly to assist the underserved in our community, particularly mothers, newborns, and our youngest children.

“Loretta’s contributions to the cause of children and their families in Hawaii will be sorely missed.

“The Early Learning Advisory Board and Executive Office on Early Learning send their sincere condolences to her family and honor the legacy she has left us.”
