a project-based cultural learning program for youth ages 10-21 on the Island of O'ahu.

We offer groups and community-based activities that help youth to better connect with themselves, their 'ohana, and their community.

Through participation in weekly groups, youth develop and practice positive coping skills, good communication, healthy relationships, and other important concepts to support resilience and a positive transition to young adulthood.

Services are FREE and open to all!

(Including referrals from families, schools, and other agencies or organizations on the island of O'ahu)
